PRESIDENT: Senator Syas.

SENATOR SYAS: I talked to Maurice Kremer and I thought this was taken care of but I understand I have to do it this way, that if needed that Public Works and Constitutional Revision, if needed, will change hearing rooms today. If needed, we can't tell it now because we don't know. Depends on the amount...I just want unanimous consent that if it develops that we have to change that I get to use the East Senate Chamber. Senator Maurice Kremer has consented if I needed to do that, he will change hearing rooms with me.

PRESIDENT: Senator Kremer and Senator Syas ask for unanimous consent to possibly change hearing rooms this afternoon. Are there objections?

SENATOR SYAS: If needed.

PRESIDENT: There are none objecting. There are no objections. So I assume that is discretionary with you chairmen.
